III. General professional experience:

After graduating Order of the Coiff from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1991, I spent eight years practicing commercial litigation and bankruptcy at two major law firms in Philadelphia. I then worked for two years in the Bankruptcy Department at Richards, Layton and Finger, where I worked under Tom Ambro (briefly) and Mark Collins and Dan DeFranceschi. In 2002, I formed Christopher D. Loizides, P.C., n/k/a Loizides, P.A. Most of my work today is in the area of bankruptcy litigation.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have represented parties in over a dozen mediations in different courts. I have acted as mediator in several preference actions.

V. Mediation training:

I attended a three-day, intensive seminar taught by Abrams Mediation and a follow-up advanced seminar. Total hours are approximately 36. Abrams Mediation is the authorized training program for the Bankruptcy Courts of the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. I am also a member of the Delaware Bar Association's Section on Mediation. I also attended a three-day Superior Court of Delaware mediation training; total hours are 20.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I have practiced bankruptcy law for over 20 years and have considerable experience in the area of bankruptcy litigation. The size of cases I have worked on range from small preference and collection actions to highly complex fraudulent conveyance actions involving tens of millions of dollars.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

As a small firm/solo practitioner, I have an appreciation for business concerns of my clients that I simply could never have at a larger organization.
