III. General professional experience

I have over 26 years' legal experience, twelve of which were with international law firms Dentons and Linklaters representing commercial and investment banks and others in domestic and international financings, including syndicated loans, bonds and other forms of straight and equity-linked, secured, unsecured, derivative and structured financings, and workouts. For the past nine years I have been employed as the general counsel for the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board.

IV. General pertinent experience

I have been trained and have experience in court mediations through the Mediation Apprenticeship program offered by NYU at the Manhattan Small Claims Court; have conducted mediations for the Eastern District of New York, the New York County Commercial Division, and the EEOC (both private and federal sectors;) and have considerable experience in resolving interpersonal disputes through the Bronx, Upper Manhattan and Brooklyn community dispute resolution centers.

V. Mediation training:

Facilitative Mediation Apprenticeship. NYU School of Continuing and Professional Studies, New York, NY. February-May 2002. 30 hours.

Commercial Mediation. NASD Advanced Mediation Training, New York, NY, October 2002. 24 hours.

Employment Mediation. United States Equal Employment Opportunities Commission, Newark, NJ. May 2002. 18 hours.

Community Mediation. Institute for Mediation and Conflict Resolution, Bronx, NY. February-March 2002. 35 hours.

Divorce Mediation. Center for Family & Divorce Mediation, New York, NY. June 2002. 40 hours.

Transformative Mediation. Institute for the Study of Conflict Transformation. September 2002. 20 hours.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Although I have not received direct bankruptcy training, I have considerable familiarity with the concepts on which the bankruptcy laws are based because of my experience advising clients in both domestic and international financings and reschedulings, including representing lead banks and drafting and negotiating complex, multiparty, loss-sharing and other documents in workouts.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

From 1993 through 2004 I owned and operated my own real estate business, purchasing from banks foreclosed residential properties for refurbishment and resale and acting as a residential real estate broker in Manhattan. This required my gaining familiarity with the operations of the Bankruptcy Court and the Federal Records Center.
