

Linda Gerstel, Bio

I am AV rated by Martindale Hubbell and listed by the American Lawyer as New York Areas Top Lawyers (2012 American Lawyer).

For over 25 years, I have been a partner and now am currently, Of Counsel, to Anderson Kill & Olick, P.C., Anderson Kill has a broad based practice, most notably, in the insurance coverage area, as well as general corporate and commercial litigation, bankruptcy and restructuring, employment and labor law, real estate and construction and trust and estates.

I have represented parties in litigation and mediation under various breach of contracts claims including, real estate, employment and insurance matters.

I have represented clients in the financial services sector, the real estate industry (brokers and developers) the retail sector and the manufacturing sector. In addition, I have represented closely held family partnerships.

Under the auspices of John D. Feerick of Fordham University Law School, I have been asked to participate and plan the 2013 Ghana Mediation Clinic. The 2012 program yielded reconnections for the Chief Justice of Ghana, including the development of materials and training programs for Ghanaian lawyers to assist in conducting alternative dispute resolution. I also recently joined the Storm Sandy New York Mediators Panel under the American Arbitration Association. In addition, I have recently been included in the Roster of the New York Commercial Division ADR program.

I have participated in a mediation training program, including, Basic Mediation Training (approved under New York State Unified Court System's office of ADR program Part 146) Center for Interpersonal Development (30 hours); and Advanced Commercial Mediation (New York Bar Association, City Bar) (21 hours).
