IV. General pertinent experience:

Since 2004 I have been appointed as a mediator in several cases in the Bankruptcy Court SDNY. The issues presented generally require an examination of the merits of pending state litigation and its impact on the assets before the Bankruptcy Court.
I served 18 years as a NYS Supreme Court Justice resolving by trial or settlement more than 10,000 cases.
I am presently serving as an arbitrator / mediator for the National Arbitration and Mediation Service (NAM).

V. Mediation training:

From 1984 to 2002 I participated in a one week annual judicial training program presented by the NYS Office of Court Administration.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

As a NYS Supreme Court Justice I dealt with bankruptcy issues as they were relevant to litigation pending in my court.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

In private practice I have dealt with real estate and estate issues.

I was formerly licensed as a Series 6 Securities Representative and as such am familiar with the primary securities markets, particularly Mutual Funds, variable annuities and insurance.
