II. Professional Organizations

Active memberships in New York State Bar Association, Association of the Bar of City of New York, and American Bankruptcy Institute for periods exceeding ten years.

III. Professional Experience

Since 1995, I have been a member of Mediation Panel for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York and the Mediation and Early Neutral Evaluation Panels for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York. My law firm dedicates its practice to representing corporate and individual clients in all aspects of insolvency and bankruptcy law, real estate, commercial litigation and alternate dispute resolution. My firm's philosophy is to deliver personalized service and to use experience and creativity to address complex transactions and litigations in a practical and efficient manner

IV. Mediation Experience

I acted as counsel in a mediation involving four related single asset (cooperative apartment corporations) chapter 11 cases that resulted in confirmation of a joint plan of reorganization. Over the past six years, I have acted as a mediator or early neutral evaluator in a variety of matters including, but not limited to, insurance subrogation claims, products liability actions, personal injury claims and commercial lease disputes.

V. Mediation Training

Thirty-seven hours of certified mediation training, including thirty hour mediation training program for membership on Mediation Panel for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York and seven hour advanced mediation program offered to members of the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York Mediation and Early Neutral Evaluation Panels.

VI. Bankruptcy Training

As a bankruptcy attorney with twenty years of high quality experience, I combine my skills as both as litigator and a transactional attorney to assist clients in all aspects of workouts, insolvencies and bankruptcy reorganization matters. I initially trained at Levin & Weintraub, a nationally known bankruptcy boutique. Client representations include chapter 11 debtors, secured lenders, trade creditors, bondholders, shopping center developers, limited partners, indenture trustees, equipment lessors, asset purchasers, plan proponents, trustees, and other interested parties in all aspects of bankruptcy cases, both domestically and internationally.

VII. Business and Other Experience

Since 1995, I have chaired the New York State Bar Association International Law Section Committee on Multinational Insolvencies. I am also a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute. My publications include "Proactive Strategies for Shopping Center Owners in Bankruptcy Cases," Current Topics in Shopping Center Law, International Council of Shopping Centers, 1997; "Courts May Not Review Unstayed Sale Orders," The Bankruptcy Strategist, April 1997; "Pendency Interest Issue Clarified in Dow Corning Case," The Bankruptcy Strategist, December 1998; "Proper Drafting of Executory Contracts Helps Avoid Unexpected Adverse Results," The Bankruptcy Strategist, October 2000; "International Bankruptcy Law: Territoriality vs. Universality, Rights of Secured Creditor Protected Under §304(c)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code (In re Treco)," New York State Bar Association, International Chapter News 2001. I have also participated as a panel member in seminars given by the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Bar Association. I continue to manage my own law firm and previously, as an equity partner, I was actively involved in the administration of a twenty-five attorney New York law firm for a number of years.
