III. General professional experience:

I became a partner with Klestadt & Winters LLP in 2006 after practicing for six years in the areas of business bankruptcy, distressed asset transactions and complex commercial litigation.

IV. General pertinent experience:

At the time of my inclusion to this panel, I have not been formally appointed as a mediator in this Court, though I often serve as an informal mediator in chapter 11 matters while serving as an estate representative. Typically, I find myself mediating disputes between certain creditors and another estate representative in a chapter 11 case. I have also participated in several mediations as counsel to a participant.

V. Mediation training:

Basic Mediation Training: Conflict Resolution Theory & Techniques, 26.5 hours (4 full days) sponsored by The New York City Bar, completed during October, 2010.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

Throughout my years of practice, I have counseled and represented debtors, trade creditors, official committees, lessors, lenders, and chapter 11 trustees in many prominent local and national bankruptcy cases and out-of-court restructurings. I have prosecuted and defended several complex preference and fraudulent conveyance actions, claims litigations, and discovery related disputes in state and federal courts. I have represented clients in many industries and varying sectors of the economy, including airline, automotive supply, carting & demolition, construction and building, machine tooling, hospitals, nursing homes and home health care, not-for-profit family services, mortgage origination and commercial real estate, media and technology, legal and professional services, garment and textile, diamond and jewelry, graphic design and restaurants.

I have particular experience in bankruptcy matters involving professional firms, having represented the law firms Coudert Brothers LLP and Maher & Lemmo, LLP in chapter 11 cases before this Court, as well as the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in the Dreier LLP case.

I also have particular experience litigating preference and fraudulent conveyance claims, including as counsel to the Plaintiff in over 140 cases commenced in the GT Brands Holdings case before this Court. I have also counseled defendants in numerous preference and fraudulent conveyance litigations throughout my years of practice. I believe that I have a very practical approach to resolving such matters.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience

In addition to matters litigated in this and other Bankruptcy Courts, I have significant experience as a commercial litigator. I have litigated complicated issues in state courts involving, for example, theories of piercing the corporate veil and alter ego. I have also litigated the more routine breach of contract or sale of goods matters. I also have experience in matters that involve criminal and civil forfeiture in both state and federal court, having represented the auto forfeiture division of a national bank in the New York metropolitan area for many years.
