III. General professional experience:

With more than two decades experience in bankruptcy law, I have served continually and with distinction as a member of the Panel of Bankruptcy Trustees for the SDNY. I am also a member of my firm's Executive Committee, Fox Rothschild's governing body. I have represented a number of panel and non-panel trustees in New York and other jurisdictions. In trustee matters, I have significant experience in complex wind-downs and liquidations, and in the investigation and recover of estate claims including against prior management. With the resources of Fox Rothschild LLP behind me, I have achieved significant results in complex litigations, including multi-million dollar recoveries from prior management, and efficient resolution of complex multi-party litigations.

IV. General pertinent experience:

I have participated as counsel in several successful mediations throughout my career, including before the Honorable Cecilia Morris, as mediator, and involving several private mediations.

V. Mediation training:

New York City Bar, Advanced Commercial Mediation Training, 17.0 hours, May 2012.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

I was appointed as a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Trustee in the Southern District of New York in 1992. I have served as a trustee in Manhattan in thousands of bankruptcy cases, with asset values of as much as many millions of dollars. In this capacity, I have also handled and supervised countless litigation matters in the bankruptcy district and state courts, from standard recovery actions to complex fraud. I have also served as a court-approved Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors in a complex corporate shut-down and liquidation.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

In addition to my extensive bankruptcy experience, I ran and grew my own law firm for many years, and have been on my current firm's management committee, including service as the firm's New York office Managing Partner, since 2005.
